

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF MASSACHUSETTS

Magistrate No.
04-M-1033-JGD

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

v.

ROMANO CANDIDO

MEMORANDUM AND ORDER OF DETENTION

March 25, 2004

DEIN, M.J.

The defendant is charged in a criminal complaint with transferring fraudulent documents and false alien registration documents in violation of 18 U.S.C.

§§ 1028(a)(2) and 1426(b). An initial appearance was held on March 16, 2004, at which time the government moved for detention in accordance with 18 U.S.C.

§ 3142(f)(2)(A) on the grounds that the defendant poses a serious risk of flight. The defendant was represented by counsel at his initial appearance.

A detention hearing was scheduled for March 19, 2004, but was continued at the defendant's request to March 25, 2004. At the hearing, the defendant, through counsel, waived his right to a detention hearing at this time, and consented to the entry of an order of detention.

Accordingly, it is ORDERED that the defendant be DETAINED pending trial, and it is further ORDERED --

(1) That the defendant be committed to the custody of the Attorney General for confinement in a correction facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal;

(2) That the defendant be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with counsel; and

(3) On order of a court of the United States or on request by an attorney for the government, the person in charge of the corrections facility in which the defendant is detained and confined deliver the defendant to an authorized Deputy United States Marshal for the purpose of any appearance in connection with a court proceeding.

This order is without prejudice to the defendant filing a motion at any time seeking a hearing for the purpose of considering conditions of release, regardless whether there have been changed circumstances.
